Preface

When I began this journey of studying and teaching about the rapture, I did not imagine it would stir such a fire in my spirit. For many years, the topic of the rapture has been clouded with confusion, debates, and even denial. Yet the Word of God speaks with clarity, and the Holy Spirit confirms with urgency that the church must be ready for this glorious event. This book, The Mystery of the Rapture, is not written as mere doctrine, but as a call to readiness, holiness, and hope. It is born out of prayer, revelation, and a deep burden to prepare the Bride of Christ for His soon return. My heart's desire is that every reader — whether encountering this teaching for the first time or revisiting it with fresh eyes — will be awakened to the reality of the times we are living in. I pray you will not only understand the truth of the rapture but also long for it, watch for it, and live daily in light of it. The Lord is coming quickly. May these pages equip you to be among those who are ready, waiting, and watching.

Foreword

F-STATISTOLOGY N-TIMES is a prophetic teaching series given by divine inspiration.

- F stands for Faith — the unshakable foundation upon which every doctrine is built. - Statistology speaks of a systematic unfolding of truth, a structured study of God's eternal Word.

- N-Times (End Times) reveals the focus of this series: understanding the rapture, tribulation, second coming, judgment, and eternal kingdom. This series is written to equip believers with clear revelation about the times we live in, prepare the church for the return of Jesus Christ, and serve as a lifeline for those left behind.

About the Author

Introduction – What is the Rapture?

The word rapture comes from the Latin rapturo, which translates the Greek word harpazo, meaning “to seize, to snatch away, to carry off by force.” In Scripture, it refers to that sudden moment when believers in Christ will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air: “For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.”

1 Thessalonians 4:16–17 (KJV) The rapture is not a myth, nor is it a hidden doctrine—it is a blessed hope, revealed through the apostles and anticipated by the early church. It is the promise that Jesus will return, not to touch the earth, but to take His people home before the judgments of the end unfold.

Chapter 1: The Biblical Foundation

Scripture Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:17 “Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” 1 Corinthians 15:51–52 “Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.” Teaching: The foundation of the rapture rests firmly on the Word of God. Paul describes it as a “mystery”—something hidden from past generations but now revealed to the church. This event guarantees resurrection for the dead in Christ and transformation for those who are alive. Unlike the Second Coming, where Christ descends to earth, the rapture is a meeting in the sky—a divine rescue for the saints. Reflection: How does the promise of resurrection and transformation strengthen your faith? Are you living daily with the expectation that Christ could return at any moment?

Chapter 2: Signs of His Coming

Scripture Reading: Matthew 24:6–7 “And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.” 2 Timothy 3:1–2 “This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy.” Teaching: The Bible outlines clear signs that point to the nearness of the rapture. Jesus warned of wars, natural disasters, and pestilences. Paul described perilous times marked by selfishness, pride, rebellion, and godlessness. While no one knows the exact day or hour, these signs serve as reminders to remain spiritually alert. The rapture is not distant speculation—it is an imminent reality, drawing closer with each passing generation. Reflection: Which signs of today remind you most of Jesus’ warnings? How can you stay watchful without being fearful?

Chapter 3: The Timing of the Rapture

Scripture Reading: Revelation 3:10 “Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.” Teaching: Christians differ on the timing of the rapture: some believe in a pre-tribulation rapture, others in mid-tribulation, or post-tribulation. The central truth, however, is that Jesus promised to “keep” His faithful ones from the hour of trial that will come upon the whole world. The exact sequence is less important than the certainty of the event. The focus should not be on predicting dates but on preparing hearts. Readiness is the key.

Reflection: Do you focus more on when the rapture might happen, or on being ready whenever it happens? How does Revelation 3:10 encourage you in your faith?

Chapter 4: The Transformation

Scripture Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:16–17 “For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.”

Teaching: The rapture involves a glorious transformation. Those who died in Christ will rise first with resurrected, glorified bodies. The living saints will be changed instantly—mortal flesh clothed with immortality. This is the climax of redemption, the final step of salvation, when believers receive eternal, incorruptible bodies fit for the presence of God. Reflection: How does the promise of a glorified body give you hope in your current struggles? How can you use this hope to encourage others in times of loss or difficulty?

Chapter 5: Living in Readiness

Scripture Reading: Matthew 24:44 “Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.” Titus 2:13 “Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.” Teaching: The message of the rapture is not meant to create fear but readiness. Jesus calls His people to be vigilant, like the wise virgins whose lamps were full of oil in Matthew 25. Readiness means walking in holiness, staying spiritually awake, and longing for His appearing. It also means sharing the gospel with urgency, knowing time is short. Reflection: What does “being ready” look like in your daily life? If Christ came today, what would He find you doing?

Closing Appeal

The rapture is certain, sudden, and glorious. It is God's promise to His people and the blessed hope of the church. If you are not in Christ, the time is now to believe. Accept Him as your Lord and Saviour, for tomorrow is not guaranteed. If you are already a believer, live each day in watchfulness, purity, and devotion, looking for His appearing. Luke 21:36 — "Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man."
