Dedication

I dedicate this book to the Body of Christ around the world — the Bride awaiting her.

Bridegroom. To every believer who has ever longed for the Lord's appearing, may your hope be strengthened and your heart set ablaze for His coming. To those who are weary, may these words remind you that your labour in the Lord is not in vain. To those who are searching, may you find in these pages the message of salvation and the blessed hope of eternal life in Christ. And finally, I dedicate this work to the next generation — that you may not only inherit teachings, but a living expectation of Jesus Christ's return.

Chapter 1: The Power of the Blood in Scripture

From Genesis to Revelation, the Blood speaks. Abel's blood cried from the ground (Gen. 4:10), but the Blood of Jesus speaks better things (Heb. 12:24). Every sacrifice in the Old Testament pointed to the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world (Rev. 13:8).

Chapter 2: The Blood and Redemption

Through His Blood, we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins (Eph. 1:7). No longer slaves to sin, we are bought with a price (1 Cor. 6:20). The Blood restores us into right standing with God, removing guilt, shame, and condemnation.

Chapter 3: The Blood and Deliverance

The Blood is our weapon against the accuser. “They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony” (Rev. 12:11). Pharaoh had no power over Israel when the Blood was on the doorposts (Exod. 12:13). Today, demons, curses, and every work of darkness must bow to the Blood.

Chapter 4: The Blood and Covenant

Jesus declared at the Last Supper: “This cup is the new covenant in My Blood” (Luke 22:20). His Blood gives us boldness to enter the holiest place (Heb. 10:19). The Blood is the seal of the covenant, granting us authority, access, and inheritance.

Chapter 5: The Blood and Healing

Isaiah prophesied, “By His stripes we are healed” (Isa. 53:5). His Blood was shed not only for the cleansing of sin but also for the restoration of the body, soul, and spirit. Every sickness bows to the Blood that flowed from His wounds.

Chapter 6: Applying the Blood Today

- Plead the Blood over your family, home, and possessions.
- Decree the Blood as a shield against accidents, sickness, and attacks.
- Apply the Blood in prayer to silence accusations and unlock divine favor.

Decree Section: Scroll of the Blood

- I decree that I am redeemed by the Blood of Jesus.
- I decree that no weapon formed against me shall prosper, for the Blood speaks on my behalf.
- I decree that the Blood covers my mind, emotions, and decisions today.
- I decree victory, healing, and protection through the Blood of Jesus.

Call to Salvation

If you have not yet received Jesus, the Blood still cries out for your redemption. Accept Him today, and His Blood will cleanse and restore you.

Conclusion

Scroll alignment is not a one-time event but a lifestyle of daily positioning, decreeing, and discerning. As you live aligned with your scroll, every decision, relationship, and season begins to flow in divine order. Heaven backs the aligned believer, and the earth responds to their decrees. Final Decree: I decree that my life is aligned with heaven's scroll for me. I live in the perfect will of God, not the permissive will. I reject detours, delays, and distractions. The Lord perfects all that concerns me, and He watches over His Word to perform it in my life. My destiny cannot be stolen, corrupted, or aborted. I walk in clarity, authority, and victory. From this day, I remain a scroll-aligned son of God.
